Manufacturers Handbook Service

Something your dealer probably didn't mention about your new car is that you don't need to have your new car serviced by your dealer to maintain statutory warranty.

Here are the facts about your new car's statutory warranty.

- An Ultra Tune service will NOT void your statutory warranty.
- An Ultra Tune service strictly follows all the procedures recommended by your vehicles manufacturer.
- An Ultra Tune service only uses high quality service parts
- Its your car and you DO have a choice.
- Ultra Tune will give your vehicle handbook the stamp of approval.

Once your service is complete, our qualified technicians will stamp your vehicles handbook as a record of regular maintenance. This can be very important when it comes to achieving a higher resale value for your car.

Ultra Tune is Flexible

Ultra Tune Service Centres specialise in vehicle maintenance. Our highly trained technicians aren't kept busy preparing new cars for sale or carrying out routine warranty work they just service cars.

This means Ultra Tune can offer the flexibility of having your car serviced whenever you want. And with more than 260 Ultra Tune Service Centres around Australia, you can also choose where to have it serviced as well.
